

Peculiarities:

Our pink shrimp come from the family Penaeidae. A group of tropical wild catch prawns and shrimp, sold in a mix as they are caught (pinks and browns) or by specific species such as P. indicus, P. Stylifera (Caricadi), Metapenaeus affinis, Metapenaeus monoceros, P. japonicus, Metapenaeus dobsoni, Protrachypene precipua, P. semisulcatus, ...

Commercial name:

Wild catch tropical prawns

Scientific name:

Penaeidae

Family:

Penaeidae

Catch area:

Big area India, but also FAO 51, 57, 71, 87, 61, 31

Fishing method:

Trawling

Catch season:

For India : East coast: June-April - West coast: August-June

Estimated volume/year:

Available as:

HLSO, PUD, PD (cut/pin)

Raw, blanched, cooked

Available sizes:

HLSO: 16-20 pcs/lb up to 90-110 pcs/lb

PUD: 20-40 up to 300-500 pcs/lb - PD: 21-25 up to 80-120 pcs/lb

Sustainability details:

So far, south east Asia has no tropical prawn fisheries with a credible sustainability certification.

